

LORENA MATO

MSC.

BIO

Msc. Lorena Mato graduated in 2013 in the Integrated Master's Program in Pharmacy at the Faculty of Medicine, Tirana, Albania.

She has a 10-year of experience as a pharmacist in an open network pharmacy and a 3-year of experience as a lecturer in private universities in the subjects of General Inorganic Chemistry, Organic Chemistry, and Dermatology.

She is currently continuing the Doctorate Program at the Faculty of Natural Sciences, Department of Applied Chemistry. The field of study where she is continuing her Doctorate is the Study of the effects of Aflatoxin B1 and M1 on the human body.

He has participated in a large number of Scientific Conferences inside and outside the country and the topics with which he has been represented are mainly the study of toxins found in foods, which play a major role in food safety.

MSC. Mato has wide participation in numerous pieces of training on pharmaceuticals, pharmacokinetics, pharmacovigilance, continuing medical education directly and remotely, pharmacoeconomics, and drug compliance. Trainer at Viatris pharmaceutical company for Brufen and Arthryl pharmaceutical products.

Also, Mrs. Mato is certified by the Italian EIPASS Informatics Center in the Digital Health Care direction. She is a member of the Order of Pharmacists since 20013.

CAREER OVERVIEW

- Department Coordinator of Medical Sciences and Health

FIELDS OF EXPERTISE

- Nutrition and dietology Toxicology
- Dermatology and Cosmetology
- Clinic pharmacology

EMAIL

koord.mjekesi-shnd@umb.edu.al